

I am a recent convert to XM radion and now own two units. XM is all I listen to due to the variety of programming and quality of signal. It is head and shoulders better than commercial radio. I am not surprised that the commercial guys are running scared. Perhaps they should improve the quality of their product instead of shooting at XM. Please support local traffic and weather for XM. Let the commercial guys wake up and compete.